SDBC Honors Marshall 'Major' Taylor

SDBC is honored to have members of the Major Taylor Cycling Club LA and Major Taylor Cycling Club San Diego join our usual group rides on Saturday Feb 19th to honor their namesake, Major Taylor. If you are unfamiliar with Major Taylor he was one of the most accomplished American bicycle racers in the early era of cycling at the start of the 20th century. I wrote a short summary of his accomplishments here: sdbc.org/events/majortaylor

SDBC-Major Taylor Rides this Saturday

Major Taylor Cycling Clubs are joining with SDBC on our Rides this Saturday to celebrate the Legacy of Marshall 'Major' Taylor, America's first international cycling superstar. Bill Riggs, SDBC's Director of Community Engagement (and Toy Ride Santa,) has invited the Major Taylor Cycling Clubs in SoCal to join us this Saturday. We will roll out our seven group rides, D-4 through the A-Ride, as usual. During the announcement period, we will take a few minutes to introduce our guests and say a few words about Major Taylor.

Tour de Palm Springs

Several SDBC members participated in the Tour de Palm Springs and they had incredible adventures! There were over 6000 participants riding a variety of distances with 100 miles being the ultimate challenge. Congratulations to Ermias, Roger and Alex! Click their pictures to see their Strava posts.

Hey! Check Out Our New Canopies!

As promised, all the old red & black SDBC canopies were updated by the end of January. They're now sporting our new blue mosaic & orange colors. Our super speedy team of Katherine Nadler, Max from UC Cyclery, Mike McLaughlin and me were so fast we could replace a canopy in 4 minutes!

If you need canopies for an SDBC event or special occasion we have them ready for check-out. Just let me know.
